The Humble
A D D R E S S

Of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, In PARLIAMENT Assembled.

Die Jovis 12 Novembris, 1724.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

E your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return Your Majesty our most humble and hearty Thanks for Your Majesty's most Gracious Speech from the Throne.

Peace with all Powers Abroad, perfect Tranquility, and Plenty at Home, and an uninterrupted Enjoyment of all our Rights and Liberties, are such inestimable Blessings to us, as leave us no Room to wish for any thing more to complete our Happiness, but for Your Majesty's long Life and happy Reign over a most faithful and obedient People. We think our selves in Duty bound to acknowledge this prosperous 3 A 2 Situation

Situation of Affairs to be wholly owing to the Blessing of God on the wise Measures Your Majesty has pursued for the true Interest of this Kingdom.

Your Majesty's tender and compassionate Concern and Care for the Seamen, who have, by their Bravery, eminently distinguished themselves in the Service of their Country, in all Parts of the World, cannot but encourage all Your Subjects to the Strictest Performance of their Duty ; And we most humbly beseech Your Majesty to believe, that we shall at all times exert our selves, with the same Zeal which has hitherto animated us in Your Majesty's Service, for the Defence and Safety of the Nation, and that our chearful Concurrence shall never be wanting, whenever it lies in our Power, to advance the true Interest of the Publick, and promote Your Majesty's Glory.

His MAJESTY's most Gracious ANSWER.

My LORDS,

I Thank You for this very Loyal and Dutiful Address. You may depend on My steady Pursuit of such Measures only, as, by the Blessing of God upon My Endeavours, will most effectually secure the true Interest of all My People ; and that I shall at all times esteem the Increase of their Happiness, as the greatest Glory of My Reign.

F I N I S.
